Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of our new topic 'London's Burning' next half term; the children will be taking part in an exciting workshop led by the Rainbow Theatre group from London. This will be held on Thursday 22nd February. On this day, please send your child dressed as if from the 1666 era. This could include mop caps, blouses, shawls, long skirts, caps, dirty white shirts and torn trousers. This will support the children to be engaged and in role when taking part in the drama workshop.

Kindest regards

Laura Flood
